

Between the hours of nine and eleven o'clock, on Wednesday se'nnight; the bank of John Redmond, Esq. of Waterford; was broken into, and one of the desks forced; out of which were taken a number of country bank notes and some silver. It is supposed that the burglary was committed by a person who lay concealed under one of the counters until the bank was closed for the day. A reward of 100l. has been offered for the conviction of any of the persons concerned in said burglary and robbery.
