

£300 REWARD.

WHEREAS, on the Night of Thursday, the 2d inst. a most daring attempt was made to rob my Bank, by three Men, who, after having tied and ill-treated the people of the House, and opened the door of the Bank, when hearing the Guard coming, made their escape. Now, in order to bring to condign punishment, any of the Persons who entered the House, and the Person or Persons who planned and encouraged said attempt of Robbery, I hereby offer a Reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS to any of the Party who will come forward and prosecute to conviction as aforesaid.

JOHN REDMOND.

N. B. Application will be made to Government for the pardon and protection of any one who may come forward.

Wexford Bank, 7th January, 1811.

Information will be received in Wexford, or by Mr. Powers No. 127, Townsend-street, Dublin.

In addition to the above Reward, the Wexford Commercial Club offers a REWARD of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for prosecuting the parties to conviction.

Signed by Order,

ROBERT MEYLER, Secretary.